FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

WOODWARD NAMED DIRECTOR

CHARLESTON -- Kaye Woodward has been named director of Eastern Illinois University's Board of Governors Bachelor of Arts Degree Program following a national search.

Woodward, who has served as acting director for three years, said, "I am very pleased to be offered the opportunity to continue to serve in a leadership role for this important program. Working with the staff and the students involved in this program has been a positive experience over the past three years. I look forward to continuing this work."

She is responsible for directing all phases of the School of Adult and Continuing Education's Board of Governors Bachelor of Arts degree program serving approximately 1,000 adult students.

William C. Hine, dean of Eastern's School of Adult and Continuing Education said, "Eastern Illinois University's School of Adult and Continuing Education is very fortunate to have Kaye Woodward to provide leadership for the Board of Governors
